SHARE CLASS PERFORMANCE (B1 £ Acc share class)

Past performance is not indicative of future results. Investment in any strategy involves a risk of loss which may partly be due to exchange rate fluctuations.

The performance results shown, whether net or gross of investment management fees, reflect the reinvestment of dividends and/or income and other earnings. Any gross of fees performance does not include fees and charges and these can have a material detrimental effect on the performance of an investment.

Source: Insight Investment and Rimes. Fund performance is shown for share class B1 £ Acc and is calculated as total return, including reinvested income, gross of fees and expenses. Gross of fees performance results do not reflect the deduction of charges, which will reduce investors' returns. Benchmark performance shown is for the 3 Month Sterling Libid. Performance for periods over one year is annualised. Past performance is not a guide to future performance. The value of investments and any income from them will fluctuate and is not guaranteed (this may be partly due to exchange rate fluctuations). Investors may not get back the full amount invested.

FUND MANAGER COMMENTS

October initially started on a positive note, but sentiment faded as the number of virus cases gained momentum and a further US stimulus package became less likely. In the face of this challenging environment the strategy held up relatively well, recording a small negative return. Equity holdings were the main drag on performance, driven by losses in European equities, although this was partially offset by a positive contribution from emerging markets. Our total return strategy positions were broadly flat, despite a strong performance from relative value trades. Fixed income holdings provided a small positive return, with spread compression in high yield, emerging markets and Italian government bonds all adding to returns. Over the month we added positions to benefit from the relative attractiveness of Asian, emerging and US assets versus Europe and trades within the total return strategy component designed to make money in a wide range of market environments.
