Source: Insight Investment and Rimes. All performance is annualised. Fund performance is shown for share class 3 and is calculated in US dollars as total return, including reinvested income, gross of fees and expenses. Gross of fees performance results do not reflect the deduction of charges, which will reduce investors' returns. Benchmark performance shown is for EFFR (previously 7-day USD LIBID until 1st October 2020). Past performance is not a guide to future performance. Please note the value of investments and any income from them will fluctuate and is not guaranteed (this may be partly due to exchange rate fluctuations). Investors may not get back the full amount invested. Please note: data is provisional and may change. Investors must read all performance information alongside the full performance information in the KIID.

FUND MANAGER COMMENTS

The US Federal Reserve (Fed) target rate for its fed funds rate stood at 0.25%-0.50% during April, however, Fed chair Jerome Powell announced a commitment to controlling inflation and signalled a 0.50% interest rate hike at the Fed's May meeting. The US's annual inflation rate came in at a more than 40-year high of 8.5% during March. Higher energy prices were a major factor, with gasoline and fuel oil prices surging 48% and 70.1%, respectively, due to Russia's invasion of Ukraine. US GDP contracted 1.4% in annualised terms over the first quarter of 2022, according to an advance estimate. In markets, the Secured Overnight Financing Rate declined from 0.29% to 0.28% over the month. With the increased expectation of rate rises, fund activity was centred around positioning for central bank meetings. The weighted average maturity of the Fund was 20 days at the end of March and 9 days at the end of April.
